CUBA FAIR PLAY PANEL ASSAILED

Puritan Conclave Hears Rep. Tuck of Virginia

Not enough attention has been given to evidence that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee is subversive, a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee said in New Orleans Monday.

The HUAC was not startled to learn that Lee Harvey Oswald, the alleged assassin of President John F. Kennedy, was a local leader of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, said Rep. William M. Tuck, D-Va.

Tuck was keynote speaker at the national convention of Puritan, a service organization with members in small towns and areas in 19 states east of the Mississippi River.

"President Kennedy might be alive today had more attention been given evidence produced time and time again" by the HUAC, he said.

Communist influence and help from "so-called liberals" diverted proper attention from HUAC evidence, he said. "Months ago . . . the HUAC, in hearings in Washington and elsewhere concerning illegal travel to Cuba, pointed up the danger of a pro-Castro group known as the Fair Play for Cuba Committee."

Elmer T. Gates, an official of General Electric Co., was to speak at Puritan's annual banquet Monday night. The convention at the Jung Hotel closes Tuesday.
